

Report

On observance of
World environment Day,
Dated 5th June, 2010, Sunday

Institute of International Social Development has formed from 1st of April, 2010 a grass root committee for intensive work in the Block of Kolaghat in East Midnapore District of West Bengal, India named KOLAGHAT DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL with members belonging from various walks of life but residing within the block. In observance of World Environment Day the Council organized distribution of health related saplings to local farmers free of cost. 50 saplings were distributed of Guava, Mango, Lemon and Blackberry. We expect to feast on the fruits from these plants in the coming year 5th June as a mark of sustainable feed back of our observance and endeavor to maintain a sustainable environment.